***** PRESS RELEASE *****

The Vermilion County State's Attorney Jacqueline Lacy is partnering with Country Financial for their Fifth Annual Domestic Violence Awareness Month Supply Drive to benefit Crosspoint at the Y Domestic Violence and Transitional Shelter. The month of October is Domestic Violence awareness month and in order to bring awareness we have created a supply drive five years ago. Donations can be dropped off at the Country Financial Offices of Stevenson Harby-Hoopeston, Alan Puzey-Fairmount, Chris Griffin, Pete Goodwin & Patrick Williams- Danville, and Amanda Galloway-Georgetown.

Donations of non-perishable food items, cleaning products, towels, diapers, personal care products, and other various items are needed to support those in need who reside at Crosspoint at the Y Domestic Violence and Transitional Shelter.

"I would like to thank all the Country Financial Participants as well as Crosspoint Executive Director Lisa Rhodes for participating in the supply drive as we support survivors, and spread the message that violence has no place in healthy relationships." –Jacqueline M. Lacy, State's Attorney
