People v. Darrell Nickle 2021 CF 351

Darrell Nickle, formerly of Georgetown, Illinois, was sentenced February 16, 2022 to ten (10) years in the Illinois Department of Corrections for the offense of Methamphetamine Possession a Class 2 Felony. His prison sentence will be followed by one year of mandatory supervised release.

Circuit Judge Charles Hall entered the sentence upon hearing evidence that Law Enforcement stopped the defendant for a violation of the Illinois Vehicle Code, and during the stop a police canine alerted on the car for the presence of drugs. A subsequent search of the car revealed that there was approximately ten grams of methamphetamine in a hidden compartment in the car.
