People v. Timothy Sutton 2022-CF-088

On August 18, 2022, Vermilion County Circuit Judge Charles Hall sentenced Timothy Sutton, formerly of Danville, Illinois, to six years in the Illinois Department of Corrections for the offense of Domestic Battery – Strangulation, a Class 2 Felony. This sentence will be followed by four years of Mandatory Supervised Release (i.e., Parole).

The Court heard evidence that on February 24, 2022, Timothy Sutton violently attacked two victims. The victims were returning home, in Danville, when they were attacked by Sutton with a hammer. The victims made attempts to get away from Sutton, but he swung the hammer and threatened to kill the victims. Eventually, the victims were able to get away and run to a neighbor's home. The neighbor took both victims in and made them safe while they waited for Danville Police to arrive. Miller ultimately caused multiple injuries to both victims, as well as property damage.
